Legion Notes

The Irma Branch of the Canadian Legion held its regular meeting in the Legion Hall on Tuesday evening, April 6 with 10 members and two visitors present. Plans for the coming Sports Day on June 9 were made and committees set up. Posters will be out in the near future.

The highlight of the evening was the official installation of the officers by District Commander Selmer Haseo of Viking. Mr. and Mrs. Haseo were ably assisted by Comrade J. Roddick of the Viking branch. This was the first time that this ceremony has been performed in our branch and it was greatly appreciated by all present and helped to impress upon the officers the obligations which they assume when taking office and helps to promote the aims and objects of the Canadian Legion. It is regretted that a larger turnout was not present to watch the ceremony.

Black and White Study of Colored TV

The growing use of television as an educational tool is described in a recent study put out by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. With the advent of color, telecasts are being used more successfully in medical and surgical instruction. UNESCO says. Although black and white TV is still best known to the consumer, the manufacture of equipment for colorcasts is going ahead, as can be seen from the above workers who are assembling color television cameras in an RCA plant in the United States.

EDMONTON REPORT

By Donald F. Smith

EDMONTON — The Alberta legislature entered its seventh week in the current session with considerable legislation still to be fully considered.

Highlights last week included the announcement of plans to set up a pension plan for cabinet ministers and workmen's compensation. The education department's bill to establish a six-week teacher training program this summer was continued subject to debate as it moved through various stages toward enactment.

Social Credit back-bencher Lee Leavitt (Banff-Cochrane) sparked the teacher training debate by declaring his stand against the government-proposed legislation on the dictates of his conscience. The Liberals went to the extent of moving that the minister of education, Hon. A. O. Aalborg (Alexandra) should not be given approval of the house to introduce the bill. The motion was defeated.

Many hours have been spent considering the controversial proposal. It was the subject of protracted hearings of representatives of various organizations in the legislature's education committee, before which it was supported by the Alberta School Trustees' Association and the Farm Women's Union of Alberta and opposed by such organizations as the ATA, the University of Alberta and the Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations.

If approved the bill will give the minister of education the authority to establish emergency teacher training programs. Mr. Aalborg has stated they probably would be of six weeks' duration, coinciding with the university's summer school, and would be given at Calgary or Edmonton or both centres.

Purpose of the bill, the government argues, is to place "student-teachers" in classrooms (mostly in isolated areas) where the only form of instruction has been by correspondence courses under supervisors.

Hon. L. C. Halmrast, agriculture minister, argued that the standard of instruction in these classrooms would be raised by the use of student-teachers rather than of mail-order lessons and supervisors, who are not allowed to teach.

Mr. Leavitt contended that any plan of emergency teacher training should fit within a long-range plan of solving the teacher shortage. He believed many of today's complaints about the curriculum stem from not having enough highly-qualified teachers.

By starting now on a long-range plan, he told the house, the province could be producing teachers with permanent certification after four years of formal training. He believed they could be induced to stay in the profession by a system of government grants which would automatically be higher for the better-trained teacher. The grants today are the same regardless of the qualifications, he said.

There seemed to be little doubt in the minds of most persons around the legislative buildings that the bill would be passed.

The pension for cabinet ministers will be based on much the same principle as those for civil servants of the government. They would be retroactive to last September and the present ministers would be allowed to pay into the pension fund the amount they would have paid had the fund been operating when they became cabinet ministers.

Opposition members were contending that the ministers are receiving a large enough income to buy their own annuities and retirement plans without dipping into the provincial treasury.

Compensation for members of the legislative assembly would provide payment in cases where a member travelling to and from the session or committee meetings or on government business is killed or totally disabled.

Beside these matters the legislature as the week ended still had considerable legislation to deal with before the house could prorogue. Of 120 bills which have been introduced, only 43 had been given third reading (final passage) and royal assent. As each day passed it seemed to add another day to the length of time the session would last, although most were of the opinion it would end this week.

A mid-winter glimpse of the new and the old, the mystic charm of the Caribbean Isles, their customs, their buildings and their people, is in store for many Canadians who will be making one of the three cruises aboard the Empress of Scotland, flagship of the Canadian Pacific fleet, from New York to sunny South America and the storied Spanish Main this winter. Two 17-day cruises will leave New York on Jan. 29 and March 9, while an 18-day cruise will leave there Feb. 17. Among the ports of call on the cruises are St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands; La Guaira, Venezuela; Trinidad, Curacao, Panama, Jamaica and Havana, Cuba. Pictured above are some of the sights to be seen en route: (1) The ornate President's place at Havana; (2) A strikingly modern hotel at Panama; (3) the 26,300-ton Enigma of Scotland, a floating hotel; the cruise run, complete with two swimming pools; (4) the ruins of Old Panama, not far from the Canal; and (5) a typical West Indian native carrying succulent tropical fruits to market.

athletes in training build strength with MILK

Milk rates high with athletes in training. It's an abundant and economical source of highly important food elements: protein that builds, sustains and repairs body tissues; calcium, the tooth and bone builder; Vitamin A; and thiamine for healthy nerves.

Eat protein foods for physical vigour

Sports College has made repeated tests on the value of protein for physically active people. We find that athletes getting adequate amounts of milk and other dairy foods: 1) feel more like practicing 2) encounter fewer and briefer periods of staleness that slow down training 3) perform better in action.

RE: EASTERN ALBERTA HOCKEY LEAGUE

March 31, 1954.
President,
Viking Hockey Club,
Viking, Alberta.

Dear Sir: As one of the League representatives I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate your team and management in winning the final series and the Craig Cup. This is very gratifying when you consider your team has been in the Eastern Hockey League for only two years.

I sincerely hope that the good sportsmanship that has been displayed by your team and management during the past two seasons will be continued in the years to come.

I am satisfied that I am expressing the sentiment of the other Vegreville League representative as well as the members of the local Hockey Club.

Sincerely yours,
John Koshuta.

WORLD OF WHEAT

By H. G. L. Strange
Director, Research Dept.,
Searle Grain Company Ltd.

ERGOT

Whilst ergot is usually associated with the rye crop this disease may, and often does, affect other grains and grasses as well.

During the past two or three years, ergot has increased in Western Canada and has become more noticeable than usual on wheat. This increases apparently is on account of the wetter and cooler seasons which favor ergot development. There is nothing to show, however, that because ergot is prevalent one year it will occur the next.

In the early summer, ergots near the surface of the soil germinate and produce spores which are carried by the wind to infect the flowers of grains and grasses. The result is the formation of dark, horn-shaped bodies which develop in place of the normal kernels.

Grasses adjacent to the headlands and edges of fields are largely responsible for harboring ergot bodies and early cutting of wild or cultivated grasses grown near grain crops is advisable.

It is, of course, desirable to use ergot-free seed whenever

U.G.G. TAKES OVER ELEVATOR SYSTEM

Purchase of the country elevator system of the Midland and Pacific Grain Corp. Ltd. by United Grain Growers Ltd. has been announced at Calgary by George Edworthy, western division manager of the U.G.G.

The transaction includes 65 elevators located at 63 points—mostly in Alberta—along with annexes, a number of agents' dwellings, flour and coal sheds.

Acquisition of the Midland system will increase the number of elevators operated by United Grain Growers Ltd. in Western Canada to a total of 886, of which 368 are located in Alberta and the B.C. block of the Peace River area. Owned by some 48,000 farmer members, the U.G.G. is Western Canada's oldest grain handling co-operative, having been organized in 1904.

The purchase has been confirmed by C. W. Roenisch, president and general manager of the Midland and Pacific Grain Co.

this can be obtained. However, a point not too well known is that ergots, planted at a normal depth of several inches at seeding time, will not develop and are, therefore, harmless.

Miss Charlotte Anne Milne of Edmonton visited her home here last week-end.

Among our Irma folk who have been patients in Wainwright hospital this week are Mr. E. H. Targett, Mrs. Drewicki and Mrs. H. E. Clifford better known to us as the former Doris Shotts.

Mrs. R. D. Allen who has been visiting at Wainwright for the past three weeks returned to her home here on Monday.

Mr. J. Pond was an Edmonton visitor on Tuesday last.

Miss Irene Larson is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald and small son returned to Edmonton early this week after visiting here at the W. N. Frickelton home. Mrs. McDonald is the former June Frickelton.

Further donations in memory of the late Olaf Lovig have been received to the Canadian Legion Polo Fund from Mrs. Wm. Russell and Adolph of Lougheed and to the Cancer Fund from Mr. and Mrs. W. Jamieson and Howard of Jarrov.

We received word on Wednesday from our resident MLA Mr. William Masson that a project on which he has long been working has received sanction from Mr. Gordon Taylor. This project is the grading and graveling of Highway No. 14 from east of Jarrov to Wainwright, a distance of 21.6 miles. Mr. Masson also said that a second contract was shortly to be made for the grading and graveling of Highway 14 from Viking to east of Jarrov.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wakefield, the former Doris Allen, at the Wainwright hospital Tuesday, April 6, a son.

The first week of April is just past and the weather man has had us on a straight diet of cold left-overs. Although it was pretty "hatched up," it wasn't hard to recognize chilly portions of the March blizzard which never arrived—in March—and zero weather which scarcely appeared in February. However, a nice southerly wind is blowing at time of writing so perhaps the end of our unwelcome cold spell is in sight.

Mrs. A. R. McRoberts visited on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at Tofted at the home of her daughter Mrs. Johnny Moore.

Mrs. N. V. Ashdown who recently had a major operation in the Viking hospital is now in Edmonton for further medical treatment.

The Ross Local of the FUA are sponsoring a "500" Drive in the Ross School on Saturday, April 10 at 8:30 p.m. Four prizes will be given. Admission 50c with lunch included. Everybody welcome.
